Telegrams.

(By Havas Agency)

Vienna, March 29—Telegrams from Sofia announce that the Bulgarian Finance Minister was murdered yesterday when leaving the Government House by an individual who fired at him three times with a revolver. Several arrests have been made, including Karaveloff, one of the heads of the Radical party, who is believed to be the in stigator of the crime. Up to the present the actual assassin remains undiscovered, but it is generally believed that the object was to kill, not the Finance Minister, but M Stambuloff, the Premier.

Singapore, Mar. 29—The Czarewitch arrived at Saigon in Cochin China to-day, and was very cordially received by the French authorities.

Paris, Mar. 30.—In return for the decoration bestowed upon President Carnot some days since by the Emperor of Russia, he has just given the Grand Cross of the Legion d'honneur to Baron Mohrenheim who has represented Russia here since 1884.

BANKING IN BUENOS AYRES.

The Argentine Republic has been so damnified by State-banks that a retrospect on this point may be instructive.

1st period, 1822 to 1829.

On the 15th January 1822 the first bank in the River Plate was founded under the name Casa de Moneda, by a number of English and Argentine merchants, simply as a bank of discount, all currency being in gold and silver.

In 1826 it was reformed as the "Bank of the United Provinces," and a board of directors constituted, in which we find the names of Joshua Thwaites, James Britain and James Barton. Paper-money was then first created, namely to the amount of 2,700,000$, exchange being at the rate of 44 pence, or 18 dollars to the doubloon. The capital paid-up was one million dollars, or £180,000 sterling, and the business was so profitable that the first dividend was 30 per cent., the shares, of 1,000$ each, rising to a premium of 70 per cent. The war with Brazil ensued, and the bank was compelled to make advances to the Government, which entailed a fresh issue of paper-money. In October 1829 the dollar had fallen to 7½ pence, or 108 to the doubloon.

General Rosas re-modelled the bank in 1836 as the Casa de Moneda: in that year the issue amounted to 15,200,000$, exchange being 122 to the doubloon, that is a fraction over 6 pence to the dollar. In 1839 the issue was raised to 24 millions, and the dollar had fallen to less than 3 pence, or 300 to the doubloon. In 1840 Rosas issued 12 millions, which reduced the dollar to 1½ pence, or 570 to the doubloon. A period of recuperation ensued, the dollar rising to 4 pence or 200 to the doubloon.

In 1846 there was a fresh issue, which raised the amount in circulation to 126 millions, the dollar again falling below 2 pence.

3rd period, 1852 to 1866.

In 1852 and the following year there were 7 issues, in the aggregate 91 millions, but of these there were burnt 7 millions in 1853, the currency improving to a value of 2½ pence per dollar, at which figure it remained till 1859, when the war with the Argentine Confederation necessitated an issue of 85 millions and the dollar again fell to 2 pence.

Another issue of 100 millions attended the campaign of Pavon, in 1861, and of this amount 55 millions were consumed by monthly amortization down to 1863, in which year the currency stood at 349 millions. In 1866 Governor Alsina established the Oficina de Cambios to convert the currency at 25 for one, that is about twopence.

4th period, 1867 to 1882.

The currency remained stationary at 2 pence until May 17th 1876, when the Oficina de Cambios closed its doors, and gold was quoted at 12 per cent premium. The currency was increased by repeated issues from 420 millions in 1867 to 865 millions in 1882, the gold premium sometimes rising to 35 per cent.

5th period, 1883 to 1891.

President Roca re-modelled the currency, a second time, in 1883, the old money being called-in (July) at the rate of 25 for one. The new issue therefore comprised about 35 millions, convertible for gold, say £7,000,000 sterling. Since then there have been various issues, the actual amount in circulation being officially stated at 280 millions, which has caused a depreciation of nearly 75 per cent. The dollar now stands at 13 pence, and the total issue represents about 15 millions sterling.

The National Bank.

This was founded in 1873 with a capital of 8 million hard dollars, say £1,600,000 sterling, which was raised in 1884 to 20,600,000 dollars, and since then to 50,000,000. We can say nothing good of this bank from first to last: it has been a curse to the Republic. The amount of issue is included in the above totals.

The first private bank was that of Baron Mana founded in 1858, which carried on a very good business for 15 years, till 1875, when it was closed. The second was the London and River Plate Bank, opened 1st January 1863, with a paid-up capital of £600,000: the number of clerks rose from 3 in the first year to 30 in 1868, and branches were established in Montevideo, Cordoba and Rosario. This bank has given dividends averaging more than 10 per cent per annum, and has now over 100 clerks. The Argentine bank, opened in 1867 by Messrs. Cullen, Lanus &c. with a paid-up capital of £240,000 succumbed to the crisis of 1876.

Carabassa's bank began operations in a small way about 1860, and has recently been amalgamated with the London and River Plate Bank.

The Italian Bank, founded in 1872 by Messrs. Demarchi and others, has been most successful, the dividends running from 10 per cent upwards.

The English Bank of the River Plate, founded in 1880 by Messrs. Smithers, Glynn, Brockett &c, has also been very prosperous.

In the last 10 years several foreign banks have established agencies in this city, such as the London and Brazilian, the English Bank of Rio Janeyro &c., besides some new banks opened, including the Anglo-Argentine, the Banco Comercial, the French, German, Spanish and others.

Currency.

The amount of paper money and its effective value in pounds sterling since 1826 may be summed up thus—

Year.	$	£ sterling
1826 ...	2,700,000	500,000
1836 ...	15,200,000	350,000
1839 ...	40,000,000	440,000
1845 ...	60,000,000	1,000,000
1846 ...	90,000,000	750,000
1852 ...	126,000,000	1,200,000
1861 ...	376,000,000	3,500,000
1866 ...	420,000,000	3,400,000
1877 ...	711,000,000	4,800,000
1882 ...	960,000,000	9,600,000
1886 ...	70,000,000	11,500,000
1891 ...	280,000,000	16,100,000

If the currency had not been called-in by President Roca in 1883 the present amount would be 7,000 millions of the old money, or 7 times as much as in 1882. The increase of population between 1882 and 1891 has been about 22 per cent, that of currency 620 per cent, which may give some idea of the tremendous inflation that has produced the present crisis. There was quite enough of currency for all our requirements in 1882, when it was as follows—

	$ fuertes.	m/c.
National Bank...	3,800,000	95,000,000
Provincial " ...	—	865,000,000
Total.....		960,000,000

The amount in 1891, as above stated, is equal to 7,000 millions m/c., and yet there are people in Buenos Ayres who advise further issues ad libitum.

THE PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS.

The elections that came off on Sunday in the province of Buenos Ayres were disgraced by the sanguinary work that took place at Moron, one of the most fashionable pleasure resorts in the western vicinity of this capital. For the last two years local politics have torn Morn asunder, until animosity degenerated into a kind of domestic feud between Montague and Capulet. Sunday's elections were a mere pretext for paying off old scores, as all political difficulties had been removed by an amicable "modus vivendi," whereby both parties voted for the same list, an excellent manner of averting violence and fraud; the excellence of this procedure is proved by the fact that, with the exception of Moron, the elections came off in the greatest order all over the province. We may, therefore, assume that politics were merely a pretext for, not a cause of, the disgraceful proceedings in Moron.

The immediate cause of the row was the name of Mr. Narciso Aguero on the electoral list. This gentleman was invited to withdraw his name, but, as might have been expected, he refused. The next day when his opponents went in a body to vote at the precise hour fixed by law they found that voting had been going on for three-quarters of an hour, in defiance of all regulations in the matter. After protesting against the irregularity, they withdrew to their club. Under such very aggravating circumstances, it is asserted that Mr. Aguero, on horseback, passed with a body of his adherents in front of the club and gave went to his feelings in the most defiant and energetic manner. Somebody in the club answered with a Viva, then followed a volley from Aguero's friends. This was a signal for a pitched battle that lasted over an hour. This is one version of the bloody affair. Mr. Aguero's friends maintain that the whole blame lies on the shoulders of the people in the club-houses. One thing, however, is undoubtedly certain, and that is, both parties were armed to the teeth and quite prepared for the fray. We are inclined to think that in the matter of blame it is six of one and half-a-dozen of the other.

It is satisfactory to think that although the fray lasted fully an hour only five men were killed and half a dozen wounded. The whole affair is very disgraceful, and all the more disgraceful as there is little doubt that the elections were made a pretext to vent animosities of cliques in the small town. Whilst the partizans of Mr. Aguero and those of Mr. Laferrere were firing volleys in the plaza, the church was crowded with the principal families of the district. There was a panic among the ladies and children; the doors of the church were closed and the worshippers had to remain in-doors for several hours until all danger was over.

When peace was restored and voting resumed at 2 o'clock, a special train came up from La Plata with picquets of provincial troops. It turned out most fortunate that these arrived late, as the butcher's bill would have been much heavier had they entered into action. We may now look forward to the action of the courts, and we hope that for once they will make an example of the guilty, no matter what their station or political prestige.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

28th February, 1891.

The visit of the Empress Frederick has resulted in not only a failure, but an outburst of anti-Teutonic hate—in the journals, happily. The calm sober section of the population has not given way to any expression of Germano-phobism. The visit was badly timed, blunderingly conducted, and disastrously concluded. Perhaps the object of the Empress, and also of her son the Emperor, was to try and sow the seeds of a more workable reconciliation between the two nations that stand, since twenty years, face to face, like dogs in porcelain on a chimney piece. But there was also the wisdom of Bismarck to be remembered: "Never allow petticoats to interfere in politics."

It is impossible to accept the officious statements that the Empress came to Paris of her own account, following the caprice of her sex and the impulse of the moment. She is no ordinary tourist: the masses do not understand the tweedledum and tweedledee differences of august bodies travelling incognito, wearing a borrowed title that makes their individuality more recognisable than the display of all their honours full blown. It may be accepted then for a fact, that both the diplomatists at Berlin, as well as at Paris, while being actuated with the best motives for the two countries, did not estimate the depth of rankling hostility in the temperament of France, its excitability, and the readiness with which it could be inflamed. The late King of Spain committed the same blunder, and had to submit to the consequences. France is stronger, more concrete in her organization and institutions to-day than she was then. But at the same time her souvenirs of 1870-71, the amputation of Alsace-Lorraine, the loss of her prestige as first military power in Europe, are as fresh in 1891 as in 1871. If diplomatists cannot gauge these international feelings, this popular resentment and unforgivingness, there seems to be little sagacity in the career of diplomacy.

During her twelve days' stay in Paris—too long by nine, the Empress and her daughter were everywhere received with gallant politeness and respectful courtesy. Nowhere had she to complain of any rudeness of the crowd, of any unpleasing ejaculation by the curious. She was stared at—naturally: that is the penalty, or the tribute of being distinguished. Then she went about too much, and showed herself too often just as if a Cook's Excursionist, forgetting that the French saw in her only the mother of the Emperor William, who represents the country that conquered them, and who still grips Alsace, and retains it, hand on sword.

The artists whom she solicited to send pictures to the Berlin Exhibition next May would not have retracted their promises only the anti-German current of hostility that so suddenly set in compelled them to do so. They were willing to gain renown and to sell their paintings there as elsewhere. But they were not willing to be reproached with indifference to the memories of 1870-71, nor to be ostracised nor boycotted by their fellow-countrymen—and women. Hence, they will not go to Canossa. A spark, an incident, set the smouldering embers ablaze. Henri Regnault was a most promising painter, who was killed at Buzeural, outside Paris, the last engagement the citizens fought before surrendering. A statue was erected to him some years since by his 'confreres' in the Fine Arts School. A wreath of immortelles was placed a few days ago on this statue, by M. Paul Déroulede, who leads the 212 degrees patriots, ardent for flying at the throats of the Germans. The Government removed that wreath, but on protestations from Déroulede and the augmenting murmurs of the multitude, the Government restored the wreath. This explains why Déroulede is the man of the moment.

He is the nephew and heir of the late Emile Angier, dramatist and Academician; he is a perfectly upright and honorable gentleman; the only one of the very few that Boulanger counted in his ranks. He is an accepted soldiers' ballads composer, is very rich, very brave; a deputy, and despite his politics, respected. Some years ago, he made the tour of Italy and Russia to crack up these countries to make a common war on the common enemy—Germany. He has war "a outrance" to the Teutons on the brain; he would be at them to-morrow, this moment even, if he could; he will make allies with any people that will enable him to annihilate the Germans. There is no doubt of his sincerity, still less of his hold on like passions in the youth of France. He founded the league of Patriots, which was dissolved for its associations with Boulangism. Legally, it does not exist, but it is as living as ever, though it cannot manifest as an organized body. It is thus easy to comprehend the influence Paul Déroulède wields with the crowd, and why Bismarck himself has had to count with him.

Whatever may have been the artistic, archæological or personal motives to visit Versailles and St. Cloud, the Empress committed in that step one of those blunders that Talleyrand ranked as worse than a crime. She ought to have had the tact to avoid recalling to the French two incidents in the invasion which have burned themselves into the mind of the nation. It was at Versailles, under the equestrian statue of Louis XIV., in the court-entry to the Palace, that the re-constitution of the German Empire was proclaimed and centred in the hands of Kaiser William. The destruction of the ex-palace of St. Cloud, whether by the French or Germans does not now much matter, sinks into insignificance with the deliberate conflagration of the village itself by the Germans, for no imperative motive, and after Paris had capitulated. The Comte de Munster, the German Ambassador, has much to answer for, for driving Her Majesty to visit Versailles. I have special private reasons to believe that the Comte is correct when he denies he ever visited St. Cloud. But the latter is so neighbourly to Versailles that the public has bracketed the two events together, and the indictment will be added to the other recorded counts.

The people did not "manifest" against Her Majesty, but there was much wild writing in the journals. The inflammatory articles would have produced their effect, only the visitor, at last, perceived the necessity of immediate departure, and even before the hour officially fixed, to avoid the unknown. She appeared very depressed, pale and nervous as she walked on the platform to the railway-carriage; she must feel keenly the break-down of her mission and the bitterness—I decline to say danger—it has left behind. Everyone felt a personal relief when the train started, and only one wish was expressed: may no exalted German personage ever drop in on Parisians again, either in the interest of the Fine Arts or of international reconciliation.

The Emperor is reported to be annoyed at the failure of his mother's visit. But she came uninvited, unwelcomed and undesired. He has nothing to accuse the Government with; no charge to prefer against the calm, but glacially polite and courteous Parisians. The journals waxed warm; but his own Cologne Gazette surpassed while imitating the violent polemics. It called the citizens "blackguards": they who were models of courtesy under great difficulty towards the widowed Empress. Of course the future relations between the two countries will henceforth become more strained and display more friction. Excepting the followers of Déroulede, and who happily do not represent France but only their own form of patriotism, whose patriotism is not called in question—no one desires a war with Germany. But how long is the armed peace to continue? Impossible to keep for ever to the war-path. Even savages can find a time to bury the hatchet and put off the war paint and feathers.

Very serious progress has been made already by the Superior Council of Labor. It proposes for Legislative consideration—after taking the opinion of every acknowledged authority — employers and employed, above all, that no workman's wages can henceforth be seizable for debt beyond one-fourth, and in general one-eighth will be recommended; the law-costs will be nominal, instead of at present double and treble the whole debt. Respecting the Registry Offices for the obtention of work for the unemployed, these will henceforth be free, or assisted by Government, and if possible annexed to the syndicates of employers. No fees will be charged for registering applications. I have alluded to the introduction of a Bill conceding the right of association to all citizens; this will benefit the working classes, but not to the extent or in the sense they imagine. There will be assisted assurance for worn-out toilers, infirm labourers or trade-injured workmen. Rest, the uniformizing of the hours of labor and the augmentation of wages. The French legislature will never take action respecting the first unless a special branch of industry declares clearly and definitely in favour of the reform. But to fix the rate of remuneration, legislators dare not even touch that.

The Monarchists, who have no life and death ties with any dynasty, are rapidly coming over to the present Constitution. Odd that such a result should be the first consequence of the new departure of African Crusader Cardinal Lavigerie. He must feel comforted for all the attacks made on him in the Press, and fortified in his resolutions by the results of last Sunday's elections. There were seven vacancies to be filled up for deputyships, and yet not a single Monarchist had the courage to come forward and claim the support of the Constituents in favour of the Orleanist, the Bonapartist or even the Boulangist cause. "Sic gloria," &c Stranger still, no less than fourteen meetings have been held, representing as many "quartiers" of the city and suburbs, convened and presided over by avowed Bonapartists, who unanimously voted that they henceforth relinquished imperialism and rallied to the Republic.

Prince Napoleon is in Rome, and perhaps on his death-bed; he is afflicted with paralysis that is creeping rapidly to the tongue and the brain. He has sent for his wife, the Princess Clothilde, a pious, exemplary lady, and sister of the king of Italy. The moribund is a noted atheist, and greater miracles have been witnessed than his conversion at the twelfth hour.

The tariff question is commencing to give rise to much international confusion, and to not a little internal difficulty. The Government has resolved to oppose many of the new rates that would inevitably destroy the export trade of France.

The condition of Algeria has been found so unsatisfactory that a parliamentary commission is to inquire into the state of that colony. The latter costs the mother country 80 fr. millions a year. French colonists are not encouraged to emigrate thereto, owing to opposition by the Algerian French. Usuries Kill alike Arabs and Europeans. One-semi-official bank loans money at 38 per annum; other houses or persons, at that percentage, per month. There must be the locusts' plagues that one reads about as being endemic to Algeria.

THE NAPOSTA COLONY.

REMOVAL TO PEHUAJO.

The adjourned committee meeting of the British and American Benevolent Society took place yesterday at the British Consulate, Calle Reconquista. The Naposta problem was solved in the most satisfactory manner. But for the prompt action taken by the charitable gentlemen who gave their time to the service of the poor, we should have had to make another demand on behalf of the Naposta people. From the first my chief object was to prevent this call on our city merchants. Happily, the result realises our best hopes. Herr Muller leaves to night for Naposta to arrange with the people for their immediate removal to his lands at Pehuajo, guaranteeing to procure from Government the necessary passes on the Western Rail way. Mr, Barrow offers to convey the people to town free of all charge, per Gt. Southern Railway, and, last not least, Mr Gartland feeds the people for a few days free of all charge. The parties who have already been paid off, and left the camp, are expected to buy the meat and bread which is to be supplied at the lowest charge possible.

Mr. Alfred Wyse, who is associated with Herr Muller in the colonising of Dr. Del Valle's lands at Pehuajó, left yesterday for Europe, where he proposes to make known the advantages offered for really steady, hardworking people with a little capital.

Mr. Brown writes from Rocha that the crops there failed this year through early frosts; nevertheless, the people are not thinking of leaving and will try their luck there for another year. The soil is good and their prospects are fair.

The chairman, Mr. Consul Bridgett, announced that $600 m/n. had been subscribed: 500 by a leading merchant and the balance by the Hon. F. Pakenham, but this will not now be necessary, thanks to the generosity of Messrs. Gartland and the Great Southern Railway Company Besides, it is thought that the performance at the Opera House next Saturday, under the direction of Prof. William Martin, will fill the coffers of the Society.

The meeting concluded, at 1.30 p.m., by the Rev. Mr. Fleming putting the following resolution, which was unanimously accepted by those present:—

The Benevolent Society recommends that Mr. Muller write out a statement of what his society is prepared to do for the Naposta colonists.

Should the British Immigration Agent be satisfied that these terms are as stated by him at the meeting, he is empowered to write a letter recommending Mr. Muller to the colonists.

The meeting further decide to see Dr. Alsina and Mr. Barrow, to get arrangements made for the transference of the colonists.

The Committee decided to ask Mr. Gartland to keep the colonists for a few days more till arrangements are made.

EASTER SUNDAY AT THE AMERICAN CHURCH.

[Communicated].

The congregation which assembled in the American Methodist Episcopal Church on Sunday morning must have been gratified with the Easter fare provided for them. Service and sermon were of a character specially suited to the occasion, the Rev. T. H. Stockton delivering an eloquent and appropriate discourse, and the choir almost outdoing themselves in the musical portion of the service. Considering the time of year, there was a fair display of floral decoration, the flowers being subsequently sent to the British Hospital, where members of the choir kindly repeated some of the items of the morning service for the benefit of the patients. The choir was, we believe, trained by Mr. H. G. Wellby, who presided at the organ, and the following were among the most prominent features of the service:—Opening voluntary, "Les Rameaux" (Faure); Anthem, "The Lord is my strength" (Monk), boldly sung, and displaying noticeable firmness of attack and roundness of tone; solo, "I know my Redeemer liveth" (Handel), feelingly and expressively rendered by Miss Nicholson; anthem, "Christ being raised from the dead" (Gill), in which the choir sang well together and gave evidence of careful training; "Te-Deum Laudamus" (Dykes) well sung, with special attention to light and shade, the leads being taken up with precision and firmness. The closing voluntary was Mendelssohn's "War March of the Priests," and in this, as in the opening voluntary, the organist gave evidence of complete mastery of his instrument. The service was altogether of a most gratifying character, and we must congratulate both pastor and people upon a most successful Easter morning.

We understand that the esteemed pastor, the Rev. T. H. Stockton, is about to pay a visit to England and the United States, and those who know anything about the work devolving upon him in connection with the pastorate will not grudge him a holiday.

RACING.

The Hipodromo Nacional effected a very happy inauguration of their season on Sunday, 69 horses taking part in the seven events, only two races being contested by less than double figure fields. Backers of first favourites had a welcome turn, no fewer than four proving successful.

The classic event was a great success, a good field of 15 turning out. Of the two previous winners, Chaco got off badly, and was never in the hunt, whilst Santa Lucia was a little off-colour; still, she ran respectably, and will see a better day. The race resulted in a dead-heat between Riflero, who started favourite for the Premio Productos on the 15th inst., and Frenel, who, when known as Vixen, ran second to Santa Lucia in the Premio Criadores on the 22nd inst., the latter, however, now owned her position at the finish to her luck at the beginning, as she had much the best of the start. Ceres, who made a dead-heat with Santa Lucia for third place, will show better form later, as she was running on towards the end.

But even more successful still than the Premio Primer Paso was the Premio Revalidad from which Miss Mary was the only absentee. The meeting of Camora and Revelacion was indeed a battle of the giants, and, as they had to concede plenty of weight to such sterling performers as Remolacha, San Carlos, Nogoya and Fine Shade, they did not, as had been feared, monopolise attention. Indeed, Remolacha started second favourite, and for a place was actually first favourite. She ran well, but, as was to be expected from her previous exhibitions, failed to stay the last 200 metres. But nothing had a chance with Camors—it was a veritable instance of "Eclipse first and the rest nowhere." He started very quickly, obtained the rails, made all his own running, and won in a common canter, in spite of his steadier of 63 ks., making the good animals behind him appear miserable hacks.

The most noticeable feature of the remainder of the day's sport was the double event brought off for the popular Mr. Kemmis by the aid of Miss Mary and Simpleton. The mare's performance was no mean one, as she was giving away plenty of weight, and practically lost her field. Simpleton, however, was somewhat fortunate, as, had not Tesoro got off badly and lost a lot of ground immediately afterwards, the result would probably have been different.

Immediately after the flag fell to a good start, Camors dashed away and, securing the rails, led the field a merry dance; before they had gone 300 metres the eight runners were in Indian file, Fine Shade being second, Almirante third, Remolacha fourth, Revelacion fifth, San Carlos whipping in. 1000 metres from home Almirante retired and his example was soon afterwards followed by Fine Shade. Revelacion and Remolacha now decreased the distance between the leader and themselves, the mare momentarily looking dangerous at the last turn, but not being able to stay home, Revelacion soon after deprived her of the second place, but was quite unable to reach Camors, who won, after having made the whole of the running, in a common canter by two lengths; three lengths between 2nd and 3rd. Dividend $5.82. Place dividends: Camors $3.91 and Revelacion $4.78.

After a number of false starts in all of which Voyageur was prominent, the flag fell to a moderate attempt, the favourite, Chaco, getting much the worst of it. Frenel got a good lead and cut out the work till the paddock where she was joined by the brother to Maipu; a desperate race now ensued between the pair who were dead level the remainder of the journey and finished locked together. At the distance Santa Lucia ran through her field and appeared likely to finish a good third, but, tiring rapidly, she was caught on the post by Ceres, the two finishing 4 lengths behind the winners.

Railway Items.

The Government has ordered the contract made with Sr. Mauricio Penano for the construction and working of a railway between Santa Rosa (Tucuman-Jujuy line) and Oran on the River Bermejo to be put into writing in legal form.

Messrs. J. G. Meiggs, Son and Co., the concessionaires of the Pilar-Campana line, have submitted to the Government the draft conditions for the construction of the line for approval. As this line will be taken over by the Pacific, Messrs. Meiggs Son and Co. ask for the elimination of the usual clause for providing new rolling-stock, as that belonging to the Pacific is sufficient in quantity and in good condition.

The draft conditions drawn up by the Public Works Department for the construction of the railroad between Acevedo and the junction of the Great Southern of Santa Fe and Cordoba and the B.A. and Rosario, of which Messrs. Lockwood and Drabble are concessionaires, has been passed to the N.R. Board for report.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The resumption of business yesterday, after such a long holiday spell, raised everybody's spirits and the gold premium into the bargain. The Conciliation embrace between General Mitre and Governor Costa is thought far more of by politicians than by the general public or that intractable king of the air and the hour—the Gold Eagle.

The sensation of yesterday was the attempt to board and capture the Chilian war vessel Pilcomayo, in the South Dock. About 5 a.m. some 40 men began firing on the crew (25 men) from the Dock wall

Grandioso y Excepcional Remate en la Region del Trigo.
Las mejores tierras de la Provincia de Santa Fe, la floreciente Colonia "Ceres" sobre la estacion del mismo nombre del gran Ferro-Carril de Buenos Aires al Rosario y Tucuman, dista solamente nueve horas del puerto del Rosario. Con un nucleo de quinientos pobladores cada uno, con una capa de tierra vejetal de noventa centimetros de espesor y agua potable a tres metros de profundidad Dividida en Chacras quintas y solares. Por orden y cuenta de la Sociedad Colonizadora Argentina 1,000 chacras de 25 hectareas cada una, 500 quintas de 3 hectareas cada una, 150 solares del pueblo de 800 metros cuadrados cada uno. Sin base! por lo que den sin base! Condiciones ventajosisimas para el pago. 1/3 parte al contado, el resto con tres años de plazo, pagaderos por anualidades con el 7 ojo de interes anual.
Escrituras matrices gratis.
La venta se efectuara sobre los mismo terrenos

El Domingo 12 de Abril, a las 11 de la mañana.

Remataremos a la mas alta postura y dinero de contado por orden y cuenta de la "Sociedad Colonizadora Argentina" las tierras de la Colonia arriba mencionada que se componen de mil chacras de 25 hectareas cada una veinte quintas de 3 hectareas cada una, ciento cincuenta solares en el pueblo de 800 metros cuadrados cada uno.
Las tierras que ofrecemos en venta de esta Colonia son de las mejores de la Provincia, por su limejorable posicion como por la fertilidad de las mismas.
La Colonia "Ceres" esta convenientemente dividida en pueblo con sus solares, quintas y chacras, terreno muy alto y llano y esta cubierto en su mayor parte de pastos fuertes con algunos islotes de bosques cuyas maderas son quebracho, fasinabuy, algarrobo, etc. etc. La capa de tierra vejetal es de noventa centimetros de espesor, encontrandose agua potable excelente a tres metros de profundidad. Su excelente situacion es de enorme ventaja pecuniaria para los agricultores pues queda sobre el gran Ferro Carril de Buenos Aires al Rosario, prolongacion de Sunchales a Tucuman, y tiene su Estacion propia del mismo nombre (Ceres) en el centro de la colonia la cual solo dista nueve horas del gran puerto del Rosario, lo que facilita y abarata el transporte y flete de sus productos.
Llamamos preferentemente la atencion sobre esta venta de los agricultores e inmigrantes que deseosos de labrarse un porvenir seguro y de resultados efectivos buscan en que colocar sus pequeños capitales para que ayudados por su trabajo personal les de una ganancia suficiente para el sosten de los suyos y al mismo tiempo una pequeña utilidad para ahorros y aumento a una fortuna que se va agrandando y consolidando con los años; pues es sabido que en nuestro pais las principales fortunas tienen por origen la ganaderia y agricultura.
Tenemos que hacerle presente que la colonia "Ceres" cuenta ya con un nucleo de mas de quinientos pobladores que es un aliciente mas para los nuevos agricultores al mismo tiempo de ser una gran ventaja, pues no carecen de este modo de los articulos de primera necesidad ni estan espuestos a las penurias de un campo fronterizo a poblar.
Por ultimo, y sobre este punto llamamos la especial atencion de las personas que deseen adquirir tierra de la mencionada colonia y las cuales carecen de capital suficientes para ello; pues con una insignificancia pueden hacerse propietarios de las mejores tierras de la Provincia de Santa Fe, llamado con sobrada razon "La Region del Trigo" en vista de las condiciones excepcionales y grandes facilidades para el pago.
La venta se efectuara sin base alguna en lotes a gusto de los compradores, los cuales al firmar el boleto pagaran la tercera parte del importe total de sus compras al contado, abonando el resto en plazo de tres años por anualidades con el 7 ojo de interes anual firmando pagare. Los que paguen al contado gozaran de una rebaja de 9 ojo. Creemos que rara vez se les presenta oportunidad igual para la adquisicion de tierras de tal magnitud, lo cual no deben perder de vista.

Monday, March 30th.

In spite of the favourable anticipations entertained to-day of a fall in gold, as the natural consequence of the practical solution of the political situation, the precious metal was not to be courted down, and continued to move inflexibly upwards. Opening at 348.50, it began to rise speedily under a press of buyers, and advancing steadily to 355, closed firm at 354 at half-past one. Some parties attributed the rise to liquidation demands. No doubt the settlement, as a rule, marks a rising tendency, but, on the other hand, the demands now are reduced to a minimum, so that the rise of the past week must be attributed to some more ostensible causes. That these have not yet declared themselves means nothing. Everything is discounted in the market, at long or short dates, and the precise causes will no doubt soon be known. Meantime, gold is stiffening and stocks falling with a persistency little short of alarming, shewing that, instead of improving, the market is still running full tilt down the steep edge of the decline.

The business in stocks was meagre to a degree, and although Cedulas came tottering down, only small lots changed hands, L closing at 37, P at 39, M and N at 35 50 and O at 35. Some business was done in the latter series at 34.50, which is the lowest price yet touched. Constructors were negleted at 9.40; National Bank shares left off weak at 74, and Catalinas at 12.70, these being the only stocks at all largely dealt in during the hour.

The following is a summary of operations effected this afternoon during the first ring:—

Advices from Tres Arroyos announce that the farming fever has reached such a grade there that everyone, from the artisans and shopkeepers to the lawyers and doctors, have taken up concessions or farms to work. In May next there will be no less than twenty square leagues ready for the seed, and the harvest will be immense.

Judge Garay has approved the accounts of the "testamentaria" of the late Mr. J. B. Corti, ex-partner of the Carabassa Bank. The assets amounted to $371,791 gold and $2,437,650 paper, the stamp duty being $2300. The heirs are Mra Gabriel Lenzi and Mrs. Teresa Bonchetti de Corti, widow and mother respectively of the deceased.

The lawsuit brought by Messrs. Duclout and Silveyra, engineers and architects, against Mr. Mariano Cabal, for recovery of the cost of plans and estimates made by them for a building projected by Mr. Cabal, has been decided. The sum sought to be recovered was 23,000 mn, and the Judge, not finding the plaintiff's case proved, has given a verdict for the defendant.

The Cedula question is now at such a critical stage that holders of the stock are naturally most anxious to see it solved, or at least placed on some definite footing. From the great fall in the quotations of the series it has been apparent for some time past that the payment of the April coupon was more than dubious, and all doubts on this head are now set at rest by the appearance of a note from the President of the Provincial Mortgage Bank to the Provincial Government asking for authorization to pay only 25 ojo of the coupon, a rather frank avowal that the block-up so long mencacing has at last set in. The Minister, of course, replied that the request was beyond the faculty of the Government to grant, appertaining to the jurisdiction of the Chambers. The latter have a project before them on much the same lines, and even though there is manifest reluctance on the part of the Provincial legislators to declare the bank bankrupt, it is quite clear that the inevitable is at last staring them in the face. The project must eventually pass, and holders may begin to reconcile themselves to the fact that they will only get in future such a percentage as the bank's receipts will allow, probably 25 or 30 ojo, perhaps less. If the president thinks the bank can only pay 25 ojo now, the probability is that it will pay less every quarter, as the receipts, instead of improving, show an appreciable diminution. At this juncture it is satisfactory to note that holders have taken the bull practically by the horns, and apparently reconciled to the fact that they can expect no aid from the Government, have opened a new department for their own account. This embraces the starting of a joint-stock company, whose capital will be, say, 100,000,000 dollars in Cedulas. The promoters purpose buying properties put up at auction by the bank and payable in Cedulas, distributing as dividend whatever profits may accrue from the working or leasing of the properties thus purchased, and amortising the capital as soon as the value of real estate will allow of realization. By this means they will assist the bank by relieving it of a multitude of valuable though at present unrealizable properties, averting the contingency of the latter being sold at an enormous sacrifice. In this manner also the value of the Cedula may be expected to improve, so that the advantage of the project is obvious. The promoters are Messrs. E. Torriquist, Domarchi, Piaggio, Runciman, Von Bernard, F. Madero, Bellemare, Huergo, Bemberg, Lezica, Becu, Lockwood, Lavarello, Bullrich, Echeverria, Rigal, Schleiper, Sarda, De Bruyn, Leloir, Marin, Lanus, Lornoud, E. Lahusen, Storni, Von Eiken and others.

The following were the prices current in the meat and produce markets on Saturday:—

Special bullocks, meat and tallow	$35.00 to 40

but more than half of it—that is 363,647,360 lbs., was exported again. Also France is not dependent from a foreign market, and even Italy, which is still rather backward in the development of industrial life, imports in the direct way."—Kuhlow.

At afterhours business was still very dull, although gold kept quiet, remaining with buyers at 383.50 and sellers half a point higher. National Bank shares were weak at 73.50, Constructors at 9.40 and Catalinas at 12.60, but the business done was insignificant. Cedulas remained weak at 62 50 for I, 35 for N and O, and 39 50 P. A small lot of Constructor Obligations changed hands at 1.60. The lethargy of the stock market seems more pronounced every day, and the black boards will soon be blank at the present rate of going.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks during the second ring:—

The Caja de Conversion was full all day long with subscribers paying up their second call on the Patriotic Loan.

Judge Cigorraga has ordered the registration of the articles of partnership of Messrs. E. A Bunge and J. F. Born, with a capital of one million dollars, to deal in general banking, importing and exporting business; also the articles of Devoto, Rocha and Co., for manufacture of alcohol, the firm being composed of Tomas and Cayetano Devoto, Osvaldo Rocha, Severiano Lalanne, M. Cadret and E A Rellet, Messrs. A. Delays and Co., importing firm, have likewise had their articles registered.

The exchange market is firm as a rock, and at 423, the banks were drawing today. In first class paper 42½-¼d, 5-18 fcs. and 4.20 marks are quoted.

The freezing establishment at Zarate has begun to receive a large consignment from Mr. M. Aguirre de Anchorena's estancia at 50 dollars per head, an extraordinarily high price, considering the number of head to be received.

Advices from the Mount announce that the Highland Chief was able to get afloat in a gale and make her way to port unaided.

Advices from Santa Fé announce that nearly all the shares of the Banco de las Colonias, started in Esperanza, have been already placed in the various colonies, so that the concern will be almost entirely a local one. Wheat transactions, which were paralysed for a time, are again reviving under the advanced prices offered by buyers.

According to late advices, the United States Government has resolved to grant a subvention to a line of steamers between the Argentine Republic and the United States, with a view to fostering the trade relations between the two countries. The latter will, however, prove a gordian knot until both countries come to an arrangement on the tariff question, as not one but fifty lines of steamers would be useless to foster trade so long as the products of the respective countries are barred from exchange by an excessive tariff.

The Finance Sub-Secretary has sent a note to Messrs. Hugh Nelson and Co., on behalf of the Minister, asking them to communicate their definite views as to the best form of practical plan for the direct distribution of fresh meat amongst consumers in this city. "The Minister," says the note, "is very desirous that this indispensable article should be obtained in the best condition and as cheap as possible, and understands that you, with the assistance of the authorities, are in a position to carry out the idea." The Minister would feel disposed to assist any reasonable plan for the attainment of this object.

Srs. AGAR, CROSS & CO., Calle Defensa 136.

Muy Señores Mios,

Tengo el gusto de comunicar a Vds. que las 4 maquinas de Esquilar sistema Wolseley me han dado un resultado satisfactorio y no queria darles este informe hasta no haber concluido con la esquila de borregas. La maquina trabaja bien, esquilamos con facilidad cualquiera oveja por mas fina y arrugada que sea: saca mas lana que la tijera y tiene la ventaja de no cortar, pero si en algunos casos rasguña descuidandose el esquilador. Estas lastimaduras sanan facilmente, y se hacen cada vez menos cuanto mas practica se adquiere. No he notado que se me hayan muerto animales por esta causa.

Convencido de su eficacia pienso colocar doce aparatos para la proxima esquila y creo poder hacer facilmente el trabajo con ellos. Puedo asegurar a Vds. que los esquiladores mas torpes aprenden facilmente, prefiriendolas a la tijera.

Pueden Vds. darle la publicidad que gusten.

Sociedad Constructora de San Jose de Flores.

The undersigned committee invite all shareholders in the above Company to a preliminary meeting which will take place on the 2nd of April at 4 p.m. in the saloon of the Camara de Comercio of the Bolsa with the object of exchanging ideas as to the best mode of modifying the statutes of the Company in order to suppress the board and procure that the Administration of the Company be composed of a manager on salary and an honorary board. This measure is imperative if even the little that remains of the capital is to be saved as otherwise soon the whole will have disappeared. In the last meeting which took place on the 20th ult., the board brought forward and pushed through, in violation of Arts. 28 and 30 of the Statutes, a project to fix the remuneration of the board at 30.000 dollars annually which would be taken from the capital and shared amongst the board. It would be the height of folly on our part to allow the directors to appropriate annually 30,000 dollars of our capital, all the more when the shares are at 15 o/o in the market and the Company in such critical circumstances that it has not the means to meet the service of the mortgages on its properties, and this notwithstanding that there are many most respectable shareholders only too disposed to lend their services as directors without any remuneration, in defence of their own interests.—Francisco P. Marsan, Felix Bernasconi, Ricardo Peña, Eduardo Healy, Emilio Pellet, Victor de Basabe, Vicente Parallo, Pablo Frangenheim, Pedro Cabrera, Ricardo Saenz, Juan Gallardoe, Francisco Murature, Dionisio Quesada, Roberto Paterson.

Self-Registering Recording Clock.
This clock serves to test employees in warehouses, hospitals, parks, prisons, etc., and in general for watching over every kind of undertaking, such as railways, factories, workshops, etc., also of villages, towns and cities and for police and custom house service. Not only is it a exact timekeeper but at the same time shows clearly at a glance the special watching service on which it is used. It shows on a slip of paper the hour and minute at which it started, how much time has been employed from one point to another, and in what direction the rounds have been made. As this clock cannot get out of order, it is an infallible inspector which cannot be influenced by anybody or anything and also contributes to avoid conflagrations and other losses, and to prevent robberies, frauds and crimes.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
CHLORODYNE.
The original and only genuine
Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, etc.
From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medecine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has carried for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question wether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Sapasms, Crampas, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation dury many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.
CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See the "Times," July 13, 1864.
Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1/2d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
CAUTION.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.
